LOCATION

Kwandwe Private Game Reserve is located in the beautiful and historically rich Eastern Cape, surrounded by 22 000 hectares/ 54 362 acres of exclusive, malaria-free wilderness and featuring 30 km of privately owned river frontage of the Great Fish River. Kwandwe means 'Place of the Blue Crane' in Xhosa, and is home to a population of these majestic endangered birds.

ACCESS

Kwandwe is a 2-hour drive from Port Elizabeth Airport (chauffeur service available). Kwandwe is also perfect for self-drive guests due to excellent roads. Kwandwe is easily accessible by private charters into Kwandwe airstrip.

GUEST ACCOMMODATION

Six spacious suites feature bedrooms with ensuite bathroom, indoor and outdoor shower, separate w.c, twin hand basin, large veranda and a private deck and plunge pool. Interior design reflects natural textures in hues of burnt aloe orange, rust and olive. Furnishings combine clean, contemporary sofas with venerable old collectables from the area.

GUEST AREAS

Guest areas feature a spacious sitting room with fireplace, dining room and bar area and a deep veranda with expansive wooden viewing decks overlooking rolling spekboom valleys with a backdrop of the distant cliff-faces of ecca shale. There is an inviting swimming pool and an intimate study.

SAFARIS

Morning, afternoon/evening and night game drives in private open safari vehicle, guided bush walks, bush sundowners and picnics on the Reserve, fishing, rhino and buffalo tracking, archaeological, battlefield and historical tours to Grahamstown and surroundings. Bush breakfasts/dinners. Scenic coastal flights and Specialist Safaris - Frontiers@Kwandwe, Carnivore Research@Kwandwe and Photographic Safaris - all at additional cost.
