

NXABEGA OKAVANGO SAFARI CAMP

QUICK FACTS

WHAT SETS US APART

• Situated near permanent channels of the Okavango Delta • Nxabega Okavango Safari Camp offers a water and wilderness experience with the excitement of viewing big game on land • Exclusive access to 70 km<sup>2</sup> comprising six broad habitats and diverse bird, plant and animal species (birders might well see the elusive Pel's Fishing Owl) • Mokoro (canoe) and power boat excursions • The architecture and infrastructure is guided by the principle of a light footprint • Delicious Pan African cuisine

LOCATION

On the edge of the permanent Okavango Delta, Botswana, in a 7 000-hectare/17 300-acre exclusive wildlife concession on the western border of the Moremi Wildlife Reserve.

ACCESS

Scheduled Air Botswana flights to Maun or Kasane. Transfer by light aircraft to Nxabega Okavango Safari Camp airstrip. Ten minute transfer from the airstrip to the camp, game viewing en route.

GUEST ACCOMMODATION

Nine East African-style safari tents on raised wooden platforms with private decks overlooking a floodplain. All tents have an ensuite shower and w.c, and are elegantly furnished with wardrobes, luggage racks, chairs, dressing tables and bedside tables.

GUEST AREAS

Magnificent elevated main building constructed in local timber, reed and thatch with sweeping views. The camp comprises a dining room, sitting room and expansive decks. There is outside dining and a swimming pool and Safari Shop.

SAFARIS

Morning, afternoon/early evening safari drives in open 4x4 safari vehicles, boating and mekoro (dugout canoe) excursions. Birdwatching is excellent.

Weather: The Okavango has hot, wet summers (October to April). Temperatures can rise to over 40°C/104°F and usually drop to 25°C/77°F at night. Winters (May to September) are dry and cool, and the nights can be chilly.

Rainfall: The rainy season – generally in the form of magnificent afternoon thundershowers – is from late December to the end of February, sometimes continuing into March. Summer rains bring spectacular migrant birds to Botswana. Average rainfall per year is approximately 500 mm.

Best time to travel: All year round.

Malaria: The Okavango Delta is a malaria area and necessary precautions should be taken.

Children: Children are welcome. Regretfully, children 5 years and younger cannot participate in the regular game drives and mekoro activities. Children 16 years and older can participate in guided walks. Childminders can be booked at an additional cost. Children aged 6 to 11 years are accommodated on game drives and mekoro activities at the Lodge Manager's discretion. An extra bed can be arranged for a child sharing its parents' suite. No more than 1 triple in camp at any one time.

Airstrip: Nxabega Okavango Safari Camp airstrip is registered. Coordinates: S19.29.354 and E22.47.272

Ratio of guests to staff: 1 to 2

Camp closure: Open year round
